Stewardship Thought: “Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”

LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Foundations in Ministry Program: Do you feel called by God to: Live out your baptismal call as a volunteer minister in your parish and community; Build up your personal faith as a foundation for your ministry; A deeper understanding of faith and the teachings of the Church; Become closer to Christ and the community through prayer, reflection, and discussion. The Foundations in Ministry Program may be for you! Sessions run from October through March about three evenings a month. Choose you location: Mondays at the Ursuline Center in Canfield, Tuesdays at Saint Joseph Calasanctius in Jefferson, or Thursdays at Saint Thomas Aquinas High School in Louisville. Contact the Office of Lay Ministry Formation for more information at pschafer@youngstowndiocese.org or 330-744-8451 ext. 275. Information and registration materials can also be found on the Lay Ministry Formation website at www.doy.org/ministries-2/lay-ministry/.

Married Couples Weekend: Do you wish you could talk to your spouse with a deeper level of listening and understanding? In this busy day and age, there is a tendency for couples to lose touch with each other. Husbands and/or wives can get to the point where they don't think that they understand their spouse very well, or that their spouse doesn't understand them. This shortage of understanding leaves spouses feeling isolated and alone, vulnerable and anxious. On Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends, couples hear presentations, do exercises and reflections that help them to understand both themselves and their spouses better. A Fall Weekend is scheduled for October 11 – 13, 2019 in Solon at the Homewood Suites Hotel and space is limited. Call 330-305-9963 or visit www.GreatMarriagesOhio.org to learn more.

Tenth Annual Faith & Family Festival: A day of fun and fulfillment for families, students and friends will be held on Sunday, September 22, 2019, on the West Quad of the campus of Walsh University at 2020 E. Maple Street, North Canton. The day will begin at 11:00 a.m. with Mass and will feature Christian Comedian John Branyan, SingStark! From Voices of Canton, Inc., plus other talented musical acts. In addition, there will be activities for kids and young people, vendors and affordable food by Café Augustine. Last year's Faith & Family Festival was the largest we have had thus far. Would you like to help make this year's event an even bigger success? Contact Dave Schmidt at dtschmidt@youngstowndiocese.org or call 330-744-8451 ext. 272 for more information or to find out how you can help.

Vendor & Exhibitor Opportunities at the Faith & Family Festival: Vendor and exhibitor opportunities are available at very affordable rates. Limited number of spaces are available. If you would like more information about how you or your organization can participate in this year's Faith and Family Festival, please contact the vendor area coordinator Kevin Krabill at kevinkrabill@gmail.com or 330-428-3333.

Youngstown CROP Hunger Walk: Sunday, October 13, 2019. Registration and hunger awareness activities will take place 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. on the lawn of Richard Brown UMC, 1205 Elm Street, Youngstown. The Walk will start at 2:00 p.m. CROP Hunger Walk participants will have a choice of one of two routes: The three-mile Crandall Park Out & Back or the one-mile Wick Park Loop. One-fourth of the funds raised stays in our community to support local hunger and poverty fighting programs. In addition to assisting in our area, CROP Hunger Walks help families in the U.S. and around the world who are victims of disasters. There is NO FEE to participate. All donations are helpful, but each walker is encouraged to raise $100 or more. For more information, contact Becky Gifford, Event Coordinator, at youngstowncrop@gmail.com.

Holocaust History Talk: The Saint Charles Parish Library Committee will be hosing author Deacon Jesse V. McClain, a Holocaust educational specialist with the Jewish Community Relations Council. Mr. McClain has devoted his life to educating his students about the horrors of genocide and how to share their voices to spread remembrance, prevention, and healing. Jesse is a National Board Certified English teacher and spent over 20 years teaching his craft at Boardman Center Middle School. He continues teaching the public and university students the importance of writing to spread awareness and compassion about the Holocaust. The lecture event will take place at Saint Charles Borromeo Parish, 7345 Westview Drive, Boardman, in the Saint Matthew/Mark Room on Thursday, October 17, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. Copies of the memoir I Did Not Go Willingly by Joanne Scarvell will be available for $10 per copy. The memoir is about Holocaust survivor and Youngstown native William Vegh. The program is free and open to the public. For further information, please contact the Saint Charles Parish Office at 330-755-2325.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Cathedral Parish of St. Columba is twofold: to serve as the spiritual center of the Diocese of Youngstown by fostering the mission of the Bishop and to participate in the saving mission of Jesus Christ by caring for the spiritual and physical needs of people in Central Youngstown.

THE FRIENDS OF THE CATHEDRAL OF SAINT COLUMBA

The purpose of The Friends of The Cathedral of Saint Columba is to have a visual reminder of our beloved deceased not only on special days such as birthdays and anniversaries but also throughout the entire year. Once a month, a Mass is celebrated for the repose of the souls of The Friends of The Cathedral of Saint Columba. On the ninth of June, the Feast of Saint Columba, the intention of the parish Mass is for The Friends of The Cathedral of Saint Columba and a small luncheon follows. Friends who are remembered are not necessarily parishioners of St. Columba and membership to The Friends of the Cathedral of Saint Columba is annual, commencing anytime of the year. Contact the parish office for further information. Donation for being a Friend is fifty dollars a year.
