Stewardship Thought: “Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?’” John 11:40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe? Do we really put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really do see that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God's active presence in our daily lives and we become “partakers of the divine nature.”

Helping East Palestine: Catholic Charities, Diocese of Youngstown, in cooperation with Catholic Charities Regional Agency is collaborating with the local parishes of Our Lady of Lourdes, East Palestine and St. Jude Parish, Columbiana to provide services and resources to the residents of East Palestine. Dropping items off at alternative locations or outside of office hours, will put an unnecessary hardship on the parish staff and volunteers. Visit www.doy.org if you prefer to donate online. All online donations will be directed to assist residents of East Palestine. If you prefer to mail a check, please send checks made payable to: East Palestine Social Concerns, 375 E. Grant Street, East Palestine, OH 44413.

Shamrocks for Socks: Please consider donating to Catholic Charities' “SHAMROCKS FOR SOCKS” collection during the month of March. For every pair or package of socks donated (or cash donation received for the purchase of socks) we will add your name and county to a Shamrock in our “Field of Green” display and share our progress on social media as it grows! Read more about this important collection on www.ccdoy.org.

The Office of Peace and Justice promotes the themes of Catholic Social Teaching, particularly the dignity of the human person, through education, advocacy, and prayer. Director of Peace and Justice, R.J. Mangan, provides opportunities for the Catholic faithful to engage with various aspects of the Church's robust social mission, coordinating and collaborating with others of good will to influence public policy for the sake of the common good. This event is FREE and open to the public, but reservations are required. Please call Angela Wells at 330-744-8451, ext. 321 to reserve your spot, or send an email message to charities@youngstowndiocese.org.
